

ALL HOPE REMAINS

BURN

I'm not insane
I'm just cursed
All soaked in kero the vapours the worst
I'm gonna blame everyone else
They've driven me crazy they've made me a danger to my own self
Doctor help me reach comatose
Someone sedate me hook me up a dose
The balance so precarious
It hangs on a knife edge
Separate me from disturbed
Or ill burn
I've spent too long in this cell
Rotting alone in my own private hell
I'm gonna get this monkey off my back
The last thing I'll do is show all of you
With the strike of a single match
Doctor help me reach comatose
Someone sedate me hook me up a dose
The balance so precarious
It hangs on a knife edge
Separate me from disturbed
Or ill burn
Burn, I'll burn, I'll burn, I'll burn

SNAP TO ZERO

Within minutes to midnight
Scenes of chaos in our sights
Counting down these seconds sound so meagre
Snap to zero and this life
Erased before our eyes
Still we let the trivial between us
Why lie where we lay
If we can stand then we can survive
If no one's there to watch the weather wash away
Any evidence of greed as it decays
If no one's there to tell the tale of our mistakes
Did they really even happen anyway
Is it fiction is it doubt
Lack of action loss of clout
No one but ourselves are gonna save us
As the clock is ticking down
Precious time is running out
Somewhere on the way to our demise
We'll change our minds

NEVER ENOUGH

Don't ask me to explain
I'm oblivious your just to late
I'm a shadow of a
Another person you knew just yesterday
With an anaesthetic
Ill one up the pain
As it cancels the madness
Marching through my brain
Now I'm apathetic I will not refrain
Until I lose my sense of self
The one I disdain

Somewhere in my head
There's a disconnect
The sedatives kill the synopsis
As I self-destruct
You can help bad luck
It's never enough
It's never enough to achieve what I need
Searching for solace in simplicity
Let me be, if the candles burning
One wick two flames
Meet me in the middle
We'll go our separate ways
Somewhere in my head
There's a disconnect
The sedatives kill the synopsis
As I self-destruct
You can help bad luck
It's never enough

STANDING BY

One you'll notice I'll make sure of it
I won't stay silent
I sure as hell won't disappear
I'm staying put coz Where would I go
I'll be your staple This is all I know
I'll be your best kept secret
Hidden away from the world
Away from the world
Who's taking notice Who's keeping score
There are only so many times
That any person could be ignored
I don't fear rejections I don't fear the fall
So come to your senses
Give me a call
I'll be your best kept secret
Hidden away from the world
Away from the world
So walk on by I hope you find Whatever you have been looking for I'll be right here
Where I've always been

NO APOLOGIES

The fly on the wall may have seen
The way that I've been
You may call it outrageous behaviour
I get in touch with the shrink inside
To analyse this state of mind
I'll be ok, I'll be ok
I've begun to understand this
This chaotic way of life
All of this is me, no apologies
Let me out I'll find my own way home
My own way home
So much for peace of mind
When the ceiling won't move slow
Common sense tells me draw the line
But here I am lying either side
I'll be ok, I'll be ok

I'm afraid to say, I'm afraid to say
That I still don't understand this
This robotic way of life
All of this is me, no apologies
Let me out I'll find my own way home
My own way home
Did I come across to strong
Yeah I have the habit of getting things wrong
So please bear with me now
While the new and improved me
Is working this out, working this out,
I'm still working this out, yeah I'm working this out

KICK ON

Help get me out of here I'm drowning
Within the ocean of my mind
The waves will keep on rising
I cannot keep my head above the waterline
The current drags me down
Further from the surface where I
Tread water well into the night
Darkness all around sinking deeper down now
Caught in the rip of my mind
Strapped to this baggage I can't leave behind
Kick on ignore how I feel
Although invisible the struggle is real
Help guide me to the shore I'm pleading
There's desperation in these eyes
No guiding light no beacon
As I kick on these legs will weaken
Waves come crashing down
Silence not a sound
Caught in the rip of my mind
Kick on kick on Sinking deeper down
Caught in the rip of my mind
Strapped to this baggage I can't leave behind
Kick on ignore how I feel
Although invisible the struggle is real

LIGHTS OUT

Listen as I narrate for all the disengaged
The search for meaning does it make you wonder Populace in a trance throughout this haunting dance
Until we meet eternal slumber
Lights out cut the sound
You won't need any faculties now
Wake me up I've seen enough
Its indeed a fallacy imagine
But you can't make this up
Living the dream a fallacy imagine
Pretend it's not hypnotic but as it manifests
This world makes zero sense trudging our way through
All of this corruption but still we carry on Yet out of unison toward a future that we never banked on
A future that we never banked on

Lights out cut the sound you won't need any faculties now
Lights out cut the sound living the dream a fallacy imagine Imagine all these cynical images of our
Never ending struggle evaporating into nothingness
Lights out cut the sound
You won't need any faculties now
Wake me up I've seen enough
It's indeed a fallacy imagine
But you can't make this up
Living the dream a fallacy imagine

END OF ME

The vultures circled to see
The sentence handed down
The innocent was to be hung drawn and quartered
The noose was lowered on me
The people wanted blood
My final moments for their entertainment
I guess I won't be
Getting out of this alive
This is the end of me There will be no
Rainbows and butterflies
I gave my testimony
You were the willing judge
With front row seating at my execution
Last rites were read to me
All appeals were in vain
When asked for final words I only muttered
I guess I won't be
Getting out of this alive
This is the end of me
There will be no rainbows and butterflies
For me this time
This is the end of me, this is the end of me
This is the end of me, this is it...

MIRROR MIRROR

Mirror Mirror revealing the cracks
a dark mosaic staring no love back
facing the demons that lead me astray
I am a portrait of pain
The sharpest kiss The claret expands
An image of misery in fragments where I stand
Glass at my feet Tension in my jaw
I've kept this to myself
But I can't take it anymore
Mirror Mirror Revealing the cracks
A dark mosaic staring no love back
Bound by these habits that I cannot shake
I am a portrait of pain The shards won't miss
The shattered man I know I must push on but I don't know if I can
Mirror Mirror revealing the cracks
a dark mosaic staring no love back
facing the demons that lead me astray
I am a portrait of pain
